

The American Clean Power Association (“ACP”) has provided this Document for the use subject to important notices and legal disclaimers. This Document is proprietary and its use is subject to a legally binding license agreement and disclaimer (“Agreement”) described herein and available on ACP’s website at <https://cleanpower.org/standards-development/>, which may be updated from time to time. Do not use this Document for any purpose unless and until you read the agreement. By viewing or otherwise using this Document, you hereby warrant and represent that you have read and agree to be legally bound by the agreement and are authorized to bind not only yourself to the agreement, but the organization for which you are accessing this Document.

Notice and Disclaimer Concerning ANSI Process

Certain ACP standards and best practice publications, of which the Document contained herein is one, are developed through a voluntary consensus standards development process. ACP administered the process in accordance with the procedures of the American National Standards Institute (ANSI) to promote fairness in the development of consensus. This process brings together volunteers and/or seeks out the views of persons who have an interest in the topic covered by this Document. The information in this Document was considered technically sound by the consensus of persons engaged in the development and approval of the Document at the time it was developed. Consensus does not necessarily mean that there is unanimous agreement among every person participating in the development of this Document.

Notice and Disclaimer Concerning Accuracy of Information and Liability Concerning the Use of ACP Publications

Every effort has been made to assure the accuracy and reliability of the data and information contained in this Document; however, ACP does not write this Document and it does not independently test, evaluate or verify the accuracy or completeness of any information or the soundness of any judgments contained in its publications. ACP disclaims and makes no guaranty or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of any information published herein.

In publishing and making this Document available, ACP is not undertaking to render professional or other services for or on behalf of any person or entity. This Document, and ACP publications in general, necessarily address problems of a general nature. ACP disclaims and makes no guaranty or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of any information published herein, and disclaims and makes no warranty that the information in this Document or its other publications will fulfill any of your particular purposes or needs. ACP does not undertake to guarantee the performance of any individual manufacturer or seller’s products or services by virtue of this Document.

Users of this Document should not rely exclusively on the information contained in this Document and should apply sound business, scientific, engineering, and safety judgment in employing the information contained herein or, as appropriate, seek the advice of a competent professional in determining the exercise of reasonable care in any given circumstances. Information and other standards on the topic covered by this Document may be available from other sources, which the user may wish to consult for additional views or information not covered by this Document.

Use of this Document is strictly voluntary. ACP has no power, nor does it undertake to police or enforce compliance with the contents of this Document. ACP does not certify, test or inspect products, designs or installations for safety or health purposes. Any certification or other statement of compliance with any health or safety–related information in this Document shall not be attributable to ACP and is solely the responsibility of the certifier or maker of the statement.

ACP disclaims liability for any personal injury, property or other damages of any nature whatsoever, whether special, indirect, consequential or compensatory, directly or indirectly resulting from the publication, use of, application, or reliance on this Document or on any of its other publications, even if advised of the possibility of such damage and regardless of whether such damage was foreseeable. In addition, ACP does not warrant or represent that the use of the material contained in this Document is free from patent infringement. ACP publications are supplied “AS IS” and “WITH ALL FAULTS.”

Laws & Regulations

When using this Document, local, state and federal laws and regulations should be reviewed. Compliance with the provisions this Document does not constitute compliance to any applicable legal requirements. In making its publications and this Document available, ACP does not intend to urge action that is not in compliance with applicable laws, and these documents may not be construed as doing so.
