

Crux is ACP's Preferred Transferable Tax Credit Platform

ACP has partnered with Crux to better support members' participation in this growing market.

This new market allows, for the first time, clean energy developers and manufacturers to sell their tax credits to third parties for cash — creating a powerful market mechanism to channel private sector investments into energy infrastructure, innovative technologies, and advanced manufacturing.

Through this partnership, ACP members will have access to:

Discounted transaction fees

Conference programming

Quarterly market updates

Executive briefings

Powercasts

Case studies

Surveys & whitepapers

More About Crux:

Crux is a sustainable finance technology company changing the way clean energy and decarbonization projects are financed in the U.S. The company's first offering is the ecosystem for buyers, sellers, and intermediaries to transact and manage transferable tax credits. Since its launch in 2023, Crux has raised over $27 million in funding from venture capital and strategic investors and built a world-class team that merges expertise from energy, finance, government, and technology to power the clean energy transition.
